DECEMBER 1988

At first, I didn't want to take the picture. A man wrapped in moving van padding in front of one of the most pricey greengrocers in Manhattan, and fast asleep at that. Too easy, and the contradiction too simple. I compromised and took it, resisting the temptation to include wealthy-looking people going by.

Now, I'm not at all bothered that the contradictions are too simple—under Reagan/Bush/Koch it is simple.

LISTENERS' ACTION ON HOMELESSNESS AND HOUSING

We see homeless people every day, but seldom do we hear them. WBAI's continuing Listeners' Action on Homelessness and Housing will bring the voices of the homeless into our lives to help us understand how and why it happens—and then we'll grapple with ways to help solve the problem.

Special programs the investigate, educate, inspire, and encourage participation are planned throughout December. We believe radio is not simply a passive listening activity. Radio can be interactive. But even more, here is a direct opportunity to become a part of the mobilization of thousands to action and participation in the true spirit of community radio. We believe people respond with their best if they are offered the chance. WBAI's Listeners' Action on Homelessness and Housing offers all of us that challenge. How do we make the issue more than simply visible, but something felt by the heart until we are moved to action and participation in change? This is our challenge during this month of listener action, and we hope thousands will confirm our belief that we can help in direct and sustained ways; that we can move closer to understanding the problem, and that you will support a great march and rally on December 18th.

Here's what you can do—GET INVOLVED. If you want to participate in Listeners' Action, call 212-222-1907. Please read through the Folio for information on more Listeners' Action programming.

Editorial Privilege

As promised, I will hereby fondly reminisce on my history with the WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair, as it is that time of year again.

Working at the Fair in 1980 was one of the first things I did for the station (outside of attending the infamous Bear Mountain Boat Ride that previous summer, and answering phones during a sweltering August mini-Thon). I was filled with the wonders of radio in general, BAI in particular, and the singular magic of the Crafts Fair. It was all wonderful.

The most magical thing, though, was being able to wander around after the public had gone home and the most of the lights were out—then the Fair was laid out just for me, all those riches were mine to cherish in the rich silence of an empty Ferris Booth Hall. The wonder of entering the Fair on a Sunday morning, coming into the warm and bright hall, watching the Fairgoers enjoying themselves as they strolled through the booths with their exquisite crafts. Staying after hours in the company of the Night Security crew (yes, we provide 24 hour security; one reason why our exhibitors return so faithfully and fondly year after year), sharing time with these good friends—yes indeed, very kind memories.

Maybe they are so kind because I am now unable to work at the Fair. You know, how it goes—memories mist over with the soft rosy glow of times lost. Whatever the reason, you can start to make your own Crafts Fair memories this month—may they be happy ones.

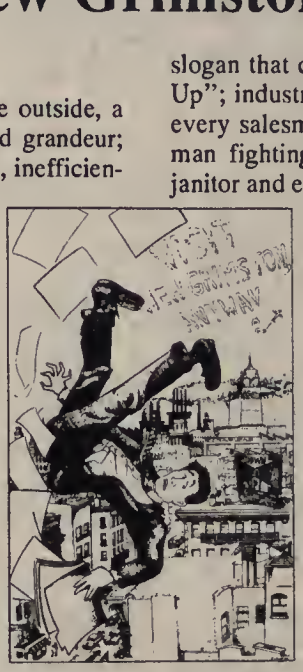
The New Grimston Saga

Saturday, December 3rd, 12:30pm—7pm.

Every city has one: a city government. From the outside, a solid bastion of civic responsibility, service and grandeur; from the inside, a seething storm of chaos, slapstick, inefficiency and blind faith.

ZPPR Productions, creators of the mystery/suspense series LITTLE CHILLS, has been offering a brave new world this year. VISIT NEW GRIMSTON, ANYWAY, the company's comic exploration of the perils of municipal government is running monthly on WBAI, but today, the station will air all 12 episodes—a New Grimston marathon. The series revolves around a lively cast of characters ranging from the frankly bewildered to the completely surreal. Among them: Neil Hoffman, an idealistic academic (author of a book on planning and policy reverently known as "the thick one"), who's come to administer the terrifyingly broad Department of Special Services; the smooth and canny Mayor Miriam Vargas, crator of the New Grimston slogan that conjures up the series inverted universe, "Down is Up"; industrialist Mel Flit, a cross between Groucho Marx and every salesman on Channel 5; Banner, of Building Security, a man fighting World War III from his office; Uncle Mickey, janitor and electronics genius, and his robot Roscoe (made from an old boiler—dispenses advice, measurements, and hot shaving lather); Neil's pantherish political nemisis Elizabeth Roebuck; and his tremulous secretary Miss Brownlow.



Situations in this Everytown include everything from political scandals to bizarre memos, and the very light side of government is tinged with the darker issues of conscience and sanity.

ZPPR Productions, a permanent radio repertory and production company, has aired original drama and comedy programs on WBAI since 1986, including the revisionist Dracula trilogy PRINCE AND WARLORD, LITTLE CHILLS, and two Sherlock Holmes specials, co-produced with Max Schmid (of the Golden Age of Radio).

7:30 BUILDING BRIDGES SPECIAL. The AFL-CIO spends almost as much on foreign policy operations as it does on its domestic budget. Much of this is federally funded. In Central America AFILD, the American Institute for Free Labor Development, has been accused of bribing union officials, influencing union elections, setting up dual unions, and cooperating with the local governments to destroy unions at odds with US foreign policy objectives. This special program hopes to further the public discussion of the role of the AFL-CIO in Central America. Produced by Mimi Rosenberg and Ken Nash.

BUILDING A BETTER BAI— DECEMBER PROGRAMMING CHANGES

This month, just before the bells sound, ringing in the new year, WBAI is launching some fresh ideas in programming.

Beginning Monday December 5, the Morning Magazine, which can be heard Monday through Friday, 6 to 9:30am, will offer a kaleidoscope of interesting news features, music, and information from the Black, Gay, Latino, and Lesbian communities—indeed, voices from all of New York's multi-cultural communities. Interviews with activists involved with issues pertinent to women, environmentalists, and many others will accompany your early morning transition into New York's pulsing reality.

On Mondays and Tuesdays, Rosemari Mealy joins all you early morning risers, with John Scagliotti helping you out of bed on Wednesdays. Thursdays and Fridays finds Will K. Wilkins picking up the mike to cap off the week. Jesse Keyes is still at the Morning News editor's desk, and every morning the Magazine breaks at 8am for our award-winning Contragate coverage. You will also hear features the ANC Frontline Report, Uncle Sam and the Swastika, and USSR In Change . . . all on the new Morning Magazine.

The WBAI Evening News moves to a new timeslot at 6pm (now you don't have to choose between National Network News and WBAI). Finally, we have added a special focus on the new information order with Behind The News, produced by Samori Marksman, starting December 12th at 7pm.

Other changes have involved our weekday Arts Magazine. It's moved up half an hour, starting now at 4:30pm and running to 6pm, providing companionship to those engaged in the daily homeward-bound automotive caravan.

Meanwhile, all the "Free Form" radio personalities arrive on the airwaves at 2:30pm.

Fridays, we bring you a new evening lineup that includes:

6:45pm NICARAGUA THIS WEEK. The series, produced by Julie Light with Tony Cavin, returns to BAI at a time when news from the Latin American community receives the media's most hostile reportage.

7:00pm AIDS IN FOCUS. This program surfaces at a time when this national/international health crisis demands an educated and informed public to deal with what amounts to a global epidemic.

7:15pm FEARFUL SYMMETRY can be heard at it's regular time.

8:00pm LATINO JOURNAL. We welcome back producer Santiago Nieves and a fine program dealing with news and information of interest to the tri-state area's Hispanic population.

8:30pm A MOVEABLE FEAST has now moved from Monday afternoons to Friday evenings. Producer Tom Vitale offers a weekly potpourri of interviews, readings and commentary from some of America's greatest literary figures.

9:00pm Fred Herschkowitz (our man from Home Fries) has moved to Fridays nights with a new show called STRANGE BEDFELLOWS ('nuff said).

10:30pm The Black Rock Coalition is camping here now, with the same great music, as hot as ever. And the Bernie Starr Show will invade our air on the last Friday of each month.

8:00 CONTRAGATE
8:30 THE MORNING SHOW continues
9:30 STORMY MONDAY with Carletta J. Walker.
12:00 NATURAL LIVING with Gary Null.

1:00 THE WBAI LISTENERS' ACTION/LEARNING ALLIANCE RADIO WORKSHOP. Part 5: Politics—Grassroots, Local, State, and the Feds. These 90 minute workshops heard at this time throughout the week are designed to introduce listeners to the nuts and bolts of community organizing and activism. The series will be hosted by Andrew Phillips with Learning Alliance workshop leader David Levine.

2:30 CONTRAGATE COVERAGE with the WBAI Contragate team—Dennis Bernstein, Robert Knight, and Connie Blitt.
3:30 FRIDAY AFTERNOON with Dennis Bernstein. The politics and poetry of struggle.

4:30 THE WBAI ARTS MAGAZINE with host Bob Holcomb. Features include the Evening Serial at 4:30, NEWS FROM THE LAUGHING PLANET with Stan Rifkin, and THE SCREENING ROOM at 5:30 with Paul Wunder and Joseph Hurley reviewing and discussing the latest films.
6:00 THE WBAI EVENING NEWS
6:45 NICARAGUA THIS WEEK. Produced by Julie Light with Tony Cavin. The story behind the headlines: news and features direct from Managua.
7:00 AIDS IN FOCUS produced by Michael Alkali.
7:15 FEARFUL SYMMETRY with Leo Cawley.
8:00 LATINO JOURNAL. Producer Santiago Nieves focuses on issues, concerns, and interests of the tri-state area's growing Latino community.
8:30 ARTS FEATURE (DRAMA)
9:00 STRANGE BEDFELLOWS with Fred Herschkowitz.
10:30 BLACK ROCK COALITION

The 17th Annual WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair has started its second magical week at Ferris Booth Hall, 115th Street and Broadway in Manhattan. Come on up (or down) and spend some time viewing the beautiful wares on display.

SATURDAY December 10

HOMELESS ACTION. Today is a day of on-air organizing and outreach. Many of us are a paycheck away from the streets. It's a thin line separating the warmth and comfort of home with the fear and bitterness of homelessness. The line is too easy to cross.

Hundreds of Listener Action Volunteers located at scores of sites in neighborhoods throughout the city will collect food, gather signatures, distribute educational materials and lay the foundations for future housing actions in 1989 in anticipation of the Sunday, December 18th vigil and rally. This is an opportunity to meet with and assist in the WBAI Listeners' Action at the local level in your community. Live coverage of local actions starts at 9am and runs until 5pm.

How can you be involved in housing justice? Call 212-222-1907.

5:00 HOUR OF THE WOLF. Science fiction, fantasy, enchantment, and the imagination. Live radio with Jim Freund.
7:00 AS I PLEASE—weekly essays with Simon Loekle.
8:30 ANY SATURDAY with David Rothenberg featuring WHAT'S LEFT TO READ (10:25), samples of the best in the progressive press, produced by Stuart Hutchison.
9:00 LISTENERS'ACTION ON HOMELESSNESS AND HOUSING SPECIAL
5:00 ALL MIXED UP with Peter Bochan.
6:50 WBAI NEWS BRIEF
7:00 HOUSING NOTEBOOK with members of the Metropolitan Council on Housing.
8:00 WORLD DANCE PARTY. World music to dance to (and live bands from our studio) produced by Al Angeloro.
10:30 RADIO UNNAMEABLE with Bob Fass.
1:00 LABBRISH with Habte Selassie.

Looking for something to do (besides listening to the unique and challenging programming on WBAI)? Come to the Fair, the 17th Annual WBAI Holiday Crafts Fair, now in progress at Ferris Booth Hall, 115th Street and Broadway in Manhattan. 55,000 people (attendees of last year's Fair) can't be wrong! Make it a family tradition.

7:30 BUILDING BRIDGES. The community labor report with Mimi Rosenberg and Ken Nash.

The WBAI radio family is sad to announce that reporter Michael McBride died on October 15th. He was 35 years old. Michael was a fine reporter and a dear friend to many of us at the station, and he will be sorely missed. For his entire life, Michael practiced the art of language: through his songs; his acting; his study of literature and history; and finally as a journalist. His calm, gentle nature allowed him to reach to the heart; his literary discipline brought clarity and eloquence to his message; his sense of humor and theatre brought pleasure to his listeners; and his commitment to social justice brought passion to the issues he covered.

At the time of his death, Michael was coordinating WBAI's Listener Action on Homelessnes and Housing; in fact, most of Michael's work over that past year centered on the homeless. In an editorial he wrote a few months ago, he calls us to action:

"The first victory must be won in our own hearts: as each of us rejects the cynicism of our time and says 'no, enough.'

"This station is organizing an action on the crisis of homelessness. All around the metropolitan area you will have the opportunity to contribute items of immediate value to your homeless neighbors; especially the children. You'll be able to express your support for a new policy of using the City's resources on behalf of its citizens. We'll be organizing teams of volunteers to help people build homes and reclaim buildings.

"Tens of thousands of children in New York will not be going home today. They will not be going home tommorrow. They haven't been home in a long time. And those who say they can never go home again have to be challenged and defied and confounded. It's up to us to bring them into account and if we fail, we shall reap a bitter harvest."

1:30 HEALTHSTYLES.: The Last Female Taboo—Urinary Incontinence. Urinary incontinence is predominantly a women's problem that is rarely talked about. There is evidence that urinary incontinence, although a relatively common problem, is seldom regarded by health care providers as important to assess for and treat, let alone prevent. Diane Neuman, Diane Smith, and Karen Lynch are registered nurses who are engaged in research and practice related to this female taboo and will discuss with listeners methods of prevention, options for treatment, and issues that are perpetuating the ignorance of this health problem by health insurers and the health care industry. This live program will be moderated by Diana Mason, RN, one of the producers with the WBAI Nursing and Health Resource Network.
2:30 CONTRAGATE COVERAGE with the WBAI Contragate team—Dennis Bernstein, Robert Knight, and Connie Blitt.

HOMELESS ACTION. All this past week, Listeners' Action has been getting New Yorkers involved in breaking down the separation between the homeless and those who have housing; forming coalitions of religious, labor, and political activist groups in this city concerned about homelessness to create a spirit of unity and commitment; encouraging direct participation by the grassroots community, tenant groups, neighborhood groups and the homeless. Today, Housing Action Week will culminate in a mass vigil and march through New York streets. This is your chance to feel the power of thousands assembled to express outrage and hope. Every New Yorker has a right to decent and affordable housing. Make the 1989 Mayoral elections a referendum on housing.

Listen throughout the day, starting at 9am, as WBAI covers this important event live, and get involved in the fight for housing justice by calling 212-222-1907.

7:00 AS I PLEASE—weekly essays with Simon Loekle.
8:30 ANY SATURDAY with David Rothenberg featuring WHAT'S LEFT TO READ (10:25), samples of the best in the progressive press, produced by Stuart Hutchison.

10:30 OUT THERE ON THEIR OWN. Adelaide Hall was introduced to Broadway audiences in 1921 in the Euble Blake-Nobel Sissle musical, Shuffle Along, and went on to such famous productions as Blackbirds of 1928. In the 1950's, she returned from the ex-patriot's life in Europe to appear with Lena Horne in Jamaica. Recently, she came home again for a solo evening of cabaret at Carnegie Hall. It was there that she did her interview with producer/host Joseph Hurley and engineer Kofi Pendergrass.

11:30 OUT THERE ON THEIR OWN. A rebroadcast of the program in this series featuring Bobby Short.
12:30 PIPER IN THE MEADOW STRAYING. Folk music with Edward Haber.
2:00 PART OF THE QUESTION. Live radio with a guest host.
3:30 COUNTRY MUSIC ALTERNATIVES. Bluegrass and traditional music with Tom Tortorella. Celebrate a "Country Christmas" from the McLain Family Band, Gene Autrey, and YOU! Listen for your Christmas greetings throughout the program.
5:00 ALL MIXED UP with Peter Bochan.
6:50 WBAI NEWS BRIEF
7:00 HOUSING NOTEBOOK with members of the Metropolitan Council on Housing.

8:00 THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO CHRISTMAS SPECIAL. Throw another Yule log on the TV, but turn down the sound and put on WBAI to hear our annual Christmas gift to you, traditional holiday radio dramas and comedies to make your Yuletide bright. Santa's not talking, but from that twinkle in his eye, we suspect you will be pleasantly surprised, just as your parents were 40 years ago, with Christmas shopping with Jack Benny to Christmas shooting in the Old West. Radio to wrap presents by, produced by Max Schmid.

10:30 RADIO UNNAMEABLE with Bob Fass.

Adelaide Hall guests on "Out There On Their Own"—10am Dec. 24

7:00 THE WBAI EVENING NEWS
7:30 THE GAY SHOW featuring information and entertainment for the Gay community. "Ho-ho-ho! Don we now our gay apparel for a nifty holly jolly and gay show" says Gay Men's Radio Collective Coordinator Larry Gutenberg. The men will be kissing vigorously (blame it on the mistletoe well-hung at the studio door).
8:30 EMANATIONS with Bernard White.
10:30 THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO: The Many Voices Of The Shadow, Part 4, tonight featuring Tony Archer, who played The Shadow for only one season, in his only surviving episode, The Destroyer (1945). We will also hear him with Parker Fennelly in Grandpa Crashes Through on Grand Central Station, plus highlights of an interview with John Archer on The Golden Age of Radio in 1986, plus a Christmas surprise or two. Produced by Anthony Tollin, Jack Shugg, and Max Schmid.
12:30 NEWS REBROADCAST
1:00 BACK OF THE BOOK. Today we celebrate the birth of a man who has probably done more to shape our world than any other, the man who is more than mere man: Isaac Newton. Everything closes down on this day every year in honor of Newton's Birthday. So while everything else is silent in his honor, this program will loudly proclaim it. Free Form Live Radio with R. Paul Martin.
